A ROYAL TIME.

The youth, chivalry and beauty of Wichita gathered at Col. Stewart's residence last evening, and filled the night brim-full of the liveliest merriment. By ten o'clock, the spacious rooms were cleared of chairs and ables, and each individual seemed to try his or her best to have more fun than any of the Clarkson Sends a Lengthy Letter rest. The Glee club was there in all its glory and they rendered several selections in grand style, Mrs. A. W. Davis and Misses Hill and Eddy, and Mrs. Strong, sang several beautiful songs during the evening, which were received with hearty applause. Prof. Arnold gave his services freely for the dancers and till after midnight, a jollier crowd could not be found, than the one that met at Col. Stewart's last evening. It was late in the night before the happy young folks thought of home, and each went away wishing the evening many happy returns.
